Mr. Miller: Mr. Steinmetz has determined that your company, 930 Port Street, Inc., can pay at least $60,000 of the total proposed penalty of $138,982; a 57% reduction of the original amount. EPA is willing to provide you with an installment payment plan over a 12 month period with a 1% interest rate on the outstanding principal balance with an average monthly payment of approximately $5,050.00 per month. This offer is good for 20 days. Please let me know if you agree to accepted this offer. If EPA does not hear from you in writing on or before November 25th, EPA will assume that you have rejected our offer at which time EPA may proceed with the filing of a formal Administrative Complaint and Opportunity for a Hearing on this matter before an administrative law judge.

Folks,

To arrive at an ability to pay amount in settlement for a RCRA penalty proposed against 930 Port Street, Inc., I reviewed the following information:

- Form 1120-S, U.S. Income Tax return for an "S" Corporation for calendar years 2014 through 2018 inclusive;
- EPA's Financial Statement for Businesses;
- Publicly available real property assessments, valuations and ownerships;
- Follow-up telephone calls with Timothy Miller in the company of EPA's attorney, Louis Ramalho and the site inspector, Melissa Toffel.

Based on my review of the financial information provided by 930 Port Street, Inc., I have determined that the company is in a position to pay at least $60,000.00 in settlement of the proposed civil penalty through an Ability to Pay Settlement. I feel this can be paid in 12 monthly equal installments with available cash and the remaining balance, if any, can be financed with the company's substantial real estate equity providing assurance and security to a lender.
